

Current Licensing Opportunities

Virtuoso Consulting offers services in licensing and acquisitions (products/companies). Product licensing opportunities are detailed below; for information relating to acquisitions, please contact Elaine Evans (eevans@virtuosoconsulting.com).

Products available for licensing (various territories)

- A novel, non-invasive diagnostic test for diagnosis of vulvo-vaginal candidiasis. It takes only minutes, and can be used in the doctor's office.
- A range of skin care and hygiene products developed for babies and children: Facial and body cream, bath gel, bath oil.

In-Licensing Requirements

World-wide/Major Territories.

We are looking for patents to license from universities and spin-off companies which could provide the basis for new product development. We have a particular interest in the areas of nephrology, gastroenterology and cardiovascular medicine, but other specialist areas will be considered. Co-financing can be provided for development of products which meet the criteria for a medical food for management of a medical condition under the supervision of specialist physicians.
